

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Who was the People's Princess?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you know of any princesses? What are their names?
- What do you know about Princess Diana?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe people I admire.
- I can describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Sally writes an articles about the Princess of Wales

* The title Prince of Wales is a title given to the heir to the British throne. The title is given to his wife.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Born in 1961, Lady Diana Spencer had a fairly normal upbringing out of the public eye. Her quiet life did nothing to prepare her for the fame and glamor that being a British princess brought with it. When Prince Charles met Diana, she was a kindergarten teacher in London. In a short time, the shy teenager became one of most photographed people in the world. Soon she won the hearts of the British people with her timid smiles and quiet natural beauty. Her fairytale royal wedding to Prince Charles in 1981 was watched with excitement by people around the world.

Naturally, Diana was nervous to be in public at first, but she quickly changed, becoming the relaxed, charming royal many would come to love. She immediately became interested in charities and important causes, drawing public focus. She raised awareness of how many people suffered by visiting the homeless, lepers, and victims of AIDS. She was open and compassionate prompting others to be as well. She strongly campaigned against the use of landmines and so many countries banned their use. Diana's name was constantly found in newspaper headlines.

Sadly, the biggest headline of all marked her sudden death at 36. When he spoke at Diana's funeral, British Prime Minister Tony Blair referred to her as the "People's Princess". However, her adoring public simply called her the "Queen of Hearts".

Let's Practice!

Let's describe the "Queen of Hearts*".

*"Queen of Hearts" is a nickname given to Princess Diana by the newspapers.

Instructions: Use the words from the box to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

quiet / shy / natural / fame and glamor / charming

1. Princess Diana had a normal, _____ upbringing.
2. It did not prepare her for the _____ of being a British princess.
3. She went from being a _____ teenager to the most photographed person on the planet.
4. She won the hearts of a nation with her shy smiles and _____ beauty.
5. She developed a _____ manner.

Let's Practice!

The Princess did many things. What were they?

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Cross out the incorrect word. Write the correct sentence on the lines. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. Diana quicklier developed a charming manner when she became the Princess of Wales.

2. She immediateable took a strong interest in many charities and important causes.

3. She strongly campaigned for the abolition of landmines.

4. She constantable made newspaper headlines around the world, but the biggest one was for her death at the age of 36.

5. To many, she was simpliy the "Queen of Hearts".

Extension Activity

Let's find out about some other famous princesses in the world.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go on the internet. Do some research about princesses in different countries.
- Choose one of the princesses.
- Fill out the table below about them.
- Using the information from the table, write a 7 to 9 sentence paragraph about a princess. Write a sentences for each of the adjectives you wrote down.
- Proofread your paragraph.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I describe a princess.

☐ ☐

I write about events in their life.

☐ ☐

I write a paragraph about a person.

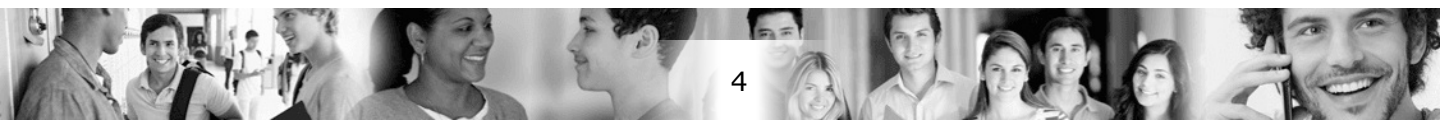

☐ ☐

Name:
Nicknames:
Location:
Adjectives to describe them:
Events:

Target Words

- upbringing (noun): the way that your parents care for you and teach you to behave when you are growing up e.g. Lady Diana Spencer had a fairly normal upbringing out of the public eye.
- princess (noun): a female member of the royal family, or a woman who marries a prince e.g. She was a British princess.
- glamor (noun): the quality of being connected with wealth and success
e.g. Her life did nothing to prepare her for the fame and glamor that being a British princess brought with it.
- fame (noun): the state of being known by a lot of people e.g. She lived a life of fame as the princess.
- shy (adjective): feeling nervous or uncomfortable around new people e.g. She was a shy young girl.
- natural (adjective): something you were born with e.g. Her natural beauty amazed people.
- charming (adjective): very pleasing or attractive e.g. She has a charming personality.
- to campaign (verb): to take part in a series of actions intended to achieve a specific result e.g. She campaigned to get rid of landmines.

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner

You use adverbs of manner when you want to describe how something is done.

Example:

She strongly voiced her concerns.

How did she voice her concerns? Strongly.

Most of the adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective.

Examples:

strong → strongly loud → loudly

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ally.

Example:

normal → normally

Adverbs can come after the direct object or after the verb, if there isn't any direct object.

Examples:

She strongly campaigned against the use of landmines and so many countries banned their use.

She immediately became interested in charities and important causes, drawing public focus.

For intransitive verbs, the adverb of manner comes immediately after the verb.

Examples:

The town grew quickly.

She waited patiently.

Learning Points

Superlatives

You use a superlative adjective to express the highest degree of a quality.

You use it to talk about one thing or person in a group of things.

The structure of the regular superlative is:

Adjective	Superlative	Form
young old big tall	youngest oldest biggest tallest	Most adjectives: + -est
photographed beautiful	most photographed most beautiful	3+-syllable adjectives: most + adjective
good bad	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

Remember you add the in front of the superlative form to describe people, places and things.

Examples:

- Princess Diana was one of the tallest princesses.
- She was the most photographed.

