

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Can you think of someone who is famous because of something they did politically?
- Who are they?
- What did they do?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe people I admire.
- I can talk about people's past experiences.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Who is the woman who became a national figure in Myanmar?

* A "national figure" is a person who is well-known in their country.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aung San Suu Kyi has helped fight for her country's struggle for democracy since 1988. She was born to lead her nation; her father was Myanmar's independence hero. He was tragically assassinated when she was just two years old. Suu Kyi had an international upbringing. She has studied in Myanmar, India, and the United Kingdom.

In 1988, she returned home to care for her ill mother. Myanmar was in political chaos after a new military group took power. A nationwide uprising started and Suu Kyi tirelessly campaigned for freedom and democracy. She was determined to help her people and fight the dictators who led her country.

She was arrested and offered her freedom back if she left the country, but she blatantly refused. She has won the Nobel Peace Prize. She was released from prison on November 13th, 2010. She was kindly greeted by thousands of adoring Burmese at the gates of her home.

Let's Practice!

Did she fight for her country's independence?

Instructions: Read the text. Select all the sentences that do not say how something happened.

Aung San Suu Kyi was born to lead her nation; her father was Myanmar's independence hero. He was tragically assassinated when she was just two years old. In 1988 she returned home to Myanmar. The country was in political chaos after a new military group took power. A nationwide uprising started and Suu Kyi tirelessly campaigned for freedom and democracy. During this time, she was arrested and offered her freedom back if she left the country, but she bluntly refused. She was released from prison on November 13th, 2010. She was kindly greeted by thousands of adoring Burmese at the gates of her home.

Let's Practice!

There was chaos and an uprising*! What happened?

*An "uprising" is an attempt by a group of people to change the government in a country.

Instructions: Complete the sentences with the words from the Word Bank. Include the words for completing the paragraph.

Word Bank

took / assassinated / has won / offered / returned / campaigned for / started / arrested / has studied / has helped / released

Aung San Suu Kyi _____ fight for her country's struggle for democracy since 1988.

She was born to lead her nation; her father was Myanmar's independence hero. He was tragically _____ when she was just two years old.

She _____ in Myanmar, India, and the United Kingdom.

In 1988 she _____ home to care for her ill mother.

Myanmar was in political chaos after a new military group _____ power. A nationwide uprising _____ and Suu Kyi tirelessly _____ freedom and democracy. She was determined to help her people and fight the dictators who led her country.

She was _____ and _____ her freedom back if she left the country, but she bluntly refused. She was _____ from prison on November 13th, 2010.

She _____ the Nobel Peace Prize.

Extension Activity

Let's interview a famous woman!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Review all the lessons. Write down the names of all the women you learned about.
- Choose one of them.
- Write down 8-10 questions you would ask them. Remember to ask about their experiences.
- Proofread your questions. Practice reading them aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write down interview questions.

☐ ☐

I write about people's past experiences.

☐ ☐

I practice reading my interview questions aloud.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- fight for (expression): the process of trying to achieve something e.g. She has helped her country fight for freedom.
- upbringing (noun): the way that your parents care for you and teach you to behave when you are growing up e.g. She had an international upbringing.
- to assassinate (verb): to kill an important person
e.g. Her father was assassinated when she was two years old.
- Myanmar (noun): a country in southeast Asia, to the east of India which was called Burma until 1998
e.g. India is between Myanmar and Pakistan.
- to campaign (verb): to take part in a series of actions intended to achieve a specific result e.g. She campaigned against the military group.
- determined (adjective): having a strong desire to do something e.g. She was determined to help her people.

Learning Points

Simple Past vs. Present Perfect

Tense	Explanation	Form
Past	Action is over and has no connection to present	Use "ed" for regular verbs.
Present Perfect	Action happened in the past, but there is some connection to the present, action may still be happening in the present	use "have or has" and past participle of verb.

Examples:

- She became a national figure.
- She has studied in many countries around the world.

Adverbs of Manner

You use adverbs of manner to describe how something is done.

Example: She blatantly refused their offers.
How did she refuse their offers? Blatantly.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective:
Examples: kind → kindly tireless → tirelessly

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ally.
Example: tragic → tragically

These adverbs can come after the direct object or after the verb if there isn't any direct object.

Examples:

- She immediately took an interest in the politics of the country.
- She actively campaigned against the military groups.

